

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is not something which should be permitted.

It is not news. The producers should be free to have it shown in theatres where those who want to see it may do so at their own expense.

I am aware that Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and thus is obligated by law to serve the public interest. The anti-Kerry documentary is not news, and it is not educational. I do not see how it is in the public interest to force it on local stations.

Sinclair's local stations should be permitted to decide what they run

We need to strengthen media ownership rules. The license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
